INTRODUCTION.

Gentlemen of the Class of 'Eighty-eight:

I have the pleasure of submitting to the Class the first report, which is an outline of our college course.

The next Report, which will appear in 1891, will be an account of the career of the members of the Class since graduation. Its completeness will depend upon the care taken by the members to keep me informed as to their position and prospects. If every member of the Class would write to the Secretary once a year, the value and interest of the second report would be greatly increased. It is especially important for the members of the Class to notify the Secretary at once of any change in their address.

The Class lives form an important part of the data which the Secretary should possess, and their value will increase from year to year. I therefore earnestly request all who have not yet sent in the blanks to do so at their earliest convenience.

All communications with regard to the Class fund should be sent to Mr. A. P. Butler, who is acting as the Class Treasurer.

We shall entertain the Class of '89 next Commencement Day in the Yard, at a room to be announced later. Notices will appear in the Boston Herald, Post and Advertiser, and in the New York Times.

I will be glad to answer any requests for information about '88 men.

Respectfully,

F. B. LUND.

Submitted,

A. P. BUTLER,

1 Jan. 1889. Chairman Class Committee.

An inspection of above account will show that our fund compares favorably with the average of previous years. But it will also disclose the fact that quite a number of members have not yet done their duty by the class in subscribing, and that several first payments, due last June, remain yet unpaid. Since the expenses for the first two or three years are necessarily large, and the Committee wish to make as small a drain as possible upon the principal, they most earnestly request that their delinquent classmates fulfil their obligations in this respect.

All communications with regard to the fund should be addressed to A. P. Butler, Jamaica Plain, Mass., who is acting as Class Treasurer.

Respectfully,

B. F. LUND,

For Class Committee.

DECEASED.

CHARLES BROOKS SAUNDERSON.

Charles Brooks Saunderson was born in Lynn, June 28, 1866, where he lived till 1879, when he began to prepare for college at the Friend's School, at Providence, R. I. He was a member of Adams Academy for the year 1883-84, and was then admitted to Harvard as a member of the Class of 1888.

He died at home, after a short illness on Feb. 22, 1888. His death was a severe shock to all who knew him, and especially to his classmates, for his loss has been the only break which death has made in our numbers.

He was quiet, unassuming, well beloved by his friends, of good standing in his studies. A meeting of the class was held for the purpose of expressing in a set of resolutions their grief at his loss and sympathy with his family.

WILLIAM HICKS OSGOOD.

William Hicks Osgood, the son of Dr. Howard Osgood of Rochester, N. Y., entered Harvard with the class of 1888, from Phillips Academy, Andover, where he had spent the last two years of his preparatory school life. He had previously studied a year at Phillips Exeter.

His preparatory school course was marked by strong religious principle, brilliant scholarship and strong friendships. Physically, he was one of the most athletic men in his class. At his graduation from Andover he gave the Salutatory address.

His short course at college gave great promise of future achievement. He was a faithful and brilliant student. He played quarter back on the '88 freshman foot-ball team.

During the middle of his freshman year, much to the regret of his many college friends he decided to leave college, and in order to be at home with his family, to finish his college course at the University of Rochester, N. Y. He was graduated from Rochester University with the Class of 1887, and was engaged in the study of law, when his death occurred after an illness of many weeks from typhoid fever, on the 7th of February, 1889. His loss will be felt as most severe by his classmates and friends at Harvard.
